LeRoy Charles Good

Funeral services for LeRoy Charles Good, 67, will be 2 p.m. Wednesday, May 28, at Converse Funeral Chapel with Rev. Dale Jackson of Assembly of God Church in Riverton officiating.

Mr. Good died May 24, 1997, in the emergency room at Memorial Hospital of Converse County.

He was born Sept. 8, 1929, to Frank Charles and Hazel (Koski) Good in Saint Lawrence, S.D. He received his elementary education in South Dakota and graduated from Sunrise High School in Sunrise in 1947.

In 1948, he started selling insurance for Lincoln Mutual Life and Casualty Insurance Company of Fargo, N.D., in Guernsey, and later in Sheridan.

He married Marie deFlores Sept. 20, 1950, in Sheridan. They moved to Douglas in 1953 where he continued selling insurance until ill health forced him to retire in 1987. He resided in Douglas until the time of his death.

He was a member of the Kiwanis Club, Douglas Area Chamber of Commerce, Douglas Community Club, and Moose Lodge #602. He was an avid golfer and bridge player. He never knew a stranger.

He is survived by his wife, Marie of Douglas; his mother Hazel Good of Spearfish, S.D.; children Gayle Good of Denver, Colo., Kyle Good of Lexington, Neb., Karen Savage of Casper, Jeri Lee Good of Douglas, and Jo Feaster of Easley, S.C.; sisters Donna Lee Campbell of Salt Lake City, Utah, and Margorie Pinney of Spearfish; nine grandchildren; and one great-grandson.

He was preceded in death by his father and brother Lawrence Good.

Serving as honorary pallbearers will be Bob Gravatt, Jim Menter, Don Irwin, Henry Goodrich, Elbert McGehee and Vern Hardesty.

A memorial to the Douglas Senior Citizens Center, 340 First Street West, Douglas 82633, would be appreciated by the family.

Converse Funeral Chapel is in charge of arrangements.
