I followed John Barker's wife's Joyce Burton (above) back to the early 1300's and the heritage was still living in England.

Then I followed John Stratton 1583 -1627 & Ann Derehaugh 1585 – 1641 all the way back to the mid to late 1100's and still living in Norfolk, England.

After following many other branches that dead ended in England I finally followed a branch of Edmund Wright II 1520 – 1584 & Frances Spring 1523 – 1599 back to William De Franceis who was born in England 1019 but he died in Normandle, France 1071. All William De Franceis paternal family before him for the previous five generations were born in France dating back to 939 Geoffrey DeBolebec. If you check a map of England back then, France was many times the size it is now.

All the branches of John Wright 1450 – 1509 & Lady Agnes Beresford 1454 – 1509 back as far as I could take them all were still in England.

Taking Thomas Spring 1473 – 1523 & Alice Marguaret Appleton 1477 – 1523 back to 1078 – 1114 Alan FitaFlaald Seneschal of Dol came from France to England however two generations before Alan of Dol his ancestry came from North Wales and before that just Wales is where it dead ended.

Cool. Ok. If you take Thomas Woodbury 1643- 1723 back just 3 generations to William Hunter 1550 - ? then you are in Scotland for many generations. I'll add that screen below the one below.

Taking the upper right above back another 500 years is all England and stops. Thomas Green doesn't go but one more generation but Elizabeth Ayscough again goes back another 400+ years all in England and stops. And Richard Thimbleby I & Elizabeth Hilton (in the lower right above) also have 400+ years of ancestry in England before most branches quit. However, one branch of Richard & Elizabeth Hilton again takes us back to France ... I'll show it below.

All Samuel Cash & Patience Pike above lower left end in England. One route in 1520, another in 1509 and the above route in 1565.

Going back now real close to the beginning

Note Roger I Bosso Count of ... I'll just show you a screen of his history below:

Roger I also called Bosso and the Great Count, was the Norman Count of Sicily from 1071 to 1101. He was the last great leader of the Norman conquest of southern Italy.

Roger was the youngest son of Tancred of Hauteville by his second wife Fredisenda. He arrived in Southern Italy soon after 1055.

Roger's first marriage took place in 1061, to Judith, daughter of William, Count of Évreux and Hawisa of Échauffour. She died in 1076, leaving all daughters:

A daughter, married Hugh of Gircea (died 1075/6), the first count of Paternò

Matilda (1062 – before 1094) married firstly (repudiated before 1080) as his second wife, Robert, Count of Eu married secondly (1080, divorced 1088) as his second wife, Raymond IV of Toulouse

Adelisa (died 1096), married in 1083 to Henry, Count of Monte Sant'Angelo

Emma (died 1120), briefly engaged to Philip I of France; married firstly William VI of Auvergne and secondly Rudolf, Count of Montescaglioso.

In 1077, Roger married a second time, to Eremburga of Mortain, daughter of "William, Count of Mortain" (probably William Warlenc). Their children were:

Mauger, Count of Troina

Matilda, married Guigues III, Count of Albon

And then you have the couple below them Lord Richard De Clare and his wife Lady Aoife Eva of Leinst... on the two screens below (blown bigger)

Aoife had been promised to Strongbow by her father who had visited England to ask for an invasion army. She was about 6 y.o. Aoife conducted battles on behalf of her husband and is sometimes known as Red Eva. A life-size statue of her sits at Carrickfergus Castle, with a plaque describing her as "thinking of home." Heritage? What I saw was a long time in the state of Maine, then short while in Massachusetts, then a very long time in England, then before that France usually Germany but a larger variety here including Belgium, Ireland, Scotland often and I stopped when in Italy.

So the main first pilgrimage was from England.
